Dear Donald,

As per F5 and F4, "After year 2007" clearly means "after year 2007"! Nothing to be bargined. Why not "after year 2004, 2005"? why not "after year 2008 or 2009"??? Even pupils understand well what does it mean!

From now on, we still have 3 years. For such a simple issue- general election, three years are much more than enough!! Hong Kong is a small island with less than 7 millions of people. Please ask the Executive Chief what big problems laying before us so that even 3 years will not be enough????

The critical problem is "2 systems under one country", is a general election by Hong Kong people! Except foreign affairs and military affairs, all problems in Hong Kong should/must be resolves/handled by the majority of Hong Kong people, but not by a small group of persons whom the majority of HK people don't like! Even the Constitution of the PRC stipulate that the people has the right to elect and to be elected. Ask those who try to oppose the general election whether the Constitution is still valid or not????? If not "after year 2007" then when??? In the year 3007 or year 5007????????????????? Don't try to ignore the voice and the volonatariness of the people! The History will punish who try to act against the people!

"Return the power to the people", "the general election" are the best issue for Hong Kong's future!!

Best Regards!
