Subject: A1(1) Hong Kong is an inalienable part of China

    Move To:

It goes without saying that Hong Kong, designated by the CPG as the special administrative region of China, is an inalienable part of China.

The ethnic Hong Kong people and those of Mainland China are descended from the same ancestors and, as such, are one unity as a nation.

Subject:A1(2) HKSAR comes directly under the CPG

    Move To:

The capitalist system as practised in the HKSAR as from 01/07/1997 is derived from the authorisation of the CPG and, as such, automatically the HKSAR should accept the guidance and leadership from the CPG. The HKSAR should reflect the voices*from all the strata of the Hong Kong people to the CPG and in turn solicit the guidance and directions from the CPG. The relationship between the HKSAR and the CPG should be a pleasing and harmonious one which is indispensable in ensuring the smooth and efficient governance of Hong Kong. There are no barriers of any kind between the HKSAR and the CPG. They are separate in function but are unanimous in policy. Both the HKSAR and the CPG have one concerted faith in mind: STRIVING FOR THE STRENGTH AND PROSPERITY OF THE NATION IN THE NOT DISTANT FUTURE.
