Subject: Constitutional Development should be based on Social Development

Move To: (Choose Folder)

Dear the correspondence,

Many reasons in Politic, Social and Economic generated such movement in Constitutional Development. However, whatsoever Constitutional Development is, the major part is social development. Therefore, it is important to get all kinds of people to involve with it.

Since Hong Kong SAR is designed to be an international city, our movement is not only influencing the future development of China but also the world.

In fact, United Nation has done some projects on Social Development, you may get reference from the following web-pages.
