Subject: A1(1) Hong Kong is an inalienable part of China

    Move To:

This is undisputed. HK remains a SAR of China and the SARG must be appointed by the CPG in accordance with the Basic Law.

Subject: A1(2) HKSAR comes directly under the CPG

    Move To:

Again, this is undisputed although HKSAR enjoys a high degree of autonomy. Hong Kong people administer their own government but should not do anything detrimental to the country.

Subject: A1(3) The Chief Executive (CE) is appointed by the CPG. He is accountable to both the CPG and the HKSAR

    Move To:

~~The CE, if not returned by universal suffrage, can be elected by a large and broadly represented electoral college. The 800-strong selection committee is too small. It should include DC members and legislators returned from both direct election and functional constituency. The composition of this electoral college, as DENG Xiaoping said, should comprise people of different sectors, be they the leftist, the rightist or the middle.~~
