Subject:A2(2) How 'gradual and orderly progress' should be understood

    Move To:

The gradual and orderly progress of selecting the Chief Executive (CE) and the LegCo councilors implies that there should not be any abrupt changes in the selection methods of such. Even though universal suffrage for CE and LegCo is the ultimate goal as stated in the Basic Law, it is not the right time to do so by 2007. Our community needs more time to discuss this issue with a view to obtaining the extensive consensus.
