Subject: A3(1) Meet 'the interests of the different sectors of society'

    Move To:

The interests of the different sectors of society will be met by giving HK a fully democratically elected Legislative Council and a fully democratically elected Chief Executive as soon as allowed in the Basic Law, that is to say election by universal suffrage of the Chief Executive in 2007 and of all the Legislative Councillors in 2008, because this is what the majority of Hong Kong people want and need.

Subject: A3(2) 'Facilitate the development of the capitalist economy'

    Move To:

The development of the capitalist economy in Hong Kong require a fully democratically elected Legislative Council and a fully democratically elected Chief Executive as soon as allowed in the Basic Law, that is to say election by universal suffrage of the Chief Executive in 2007 and of all the Legislative Councillors in 2008, because this is what the majority of Hong Kong people want and need. Refusing to listen to what they ask for would create a lot of instability.
