Dear ,

Thank you for your input.

I have relay your opinion to the Constitutional Review Task Force. Please feel free to let me know if you have any other opinion in the future.

Best regards.

Dear P C,

I have no adverse comment on the National People's Congress Standing Committee's interpretation of the two electoral provisions in the Basic Law. I fully support the provision in the Basic Law that requires constitutional development in Hong Kong to be gradual and take into consideration local situation and the interest of all sectors in the community. I strongly believe that functional constituencies should be retained in the Legislative Council to reflect the views of different interest groups.

Best regards,
