My view is 2 folds:

1. Hong Kong should have universal sufrage of the Chief Executive of Hong Kong SAR as soon as possible. If not 2007, the latest should be 2012. It is a shame to all chinese that even areas like Iraq can have direct election of the politcal leader, but not in an affluent society like Hong Kong.

2. Direct election of all lego members should begin as soon as possible.

(I prefer stay anoynmous.)
