 Subject: General Election for HK's Chief Executive 2007/2008

    Move To:

Dear Secretary,

Re: Views on our C.E.'s direct election between 07/08 proposal
 =====

My personal view on the subject matter is "negative".. meaning no pressing direct election for our new Chief Executive is needed any time before a general consensus is agreed between the majority of all walks of people in HK and most important, a compromise and mutual agreement and understanding is obtained from Beijing is reached. This is to ensure a smooth political agenda and atmosphere which is crucial to HK's stability and economic development at present and in times ahead. The "One Country, Two Systems" policy has been carrying out smoothly and firmly so far. There's no need to rock the boat by challenging our Central up north. Democratization has to be gradual by gradual in accordance with the Basic Law. I personally further appeal our new Chief Executive, Mr. Donald Tsang to take a stronger and tougher stance against those Anti-Nation/Anti-Government evil forces such as the so-called Pan-Democratic Camps. HK should not fall to the hands of these evil powers. Until the general population on the streets have got to know we Hongkong Fellows are Chinese and China being our Motherland, any suggestions for direct election and full democracy is UNREALISTIC.

Regards!

TM Chan
